ST.JOSEPH'S COLLEGE, BANGALORE.

For origin and previous history of the College, please see page 138 of the Madras University Calendar for 1933-34, Vol. II.

Until 1st June 1937, the College was under the management of the Foreign Mission Society, Paris. The Bishop of Mysore, as head of the French Foreign Mission in Mysore, was the manager of the College. A Governing Body of the College was constituted in 1923-24. The Inspector of Schools, Bangalore, was made a member of the Governing Body in 1928. For the constitution, powers and functions of this Body, please see page 3 of R.O. File 160 of 1925. This statement was prepared by the Correspondent of the College for submission to the University of Madras in connection with the visit of the University Inspection Commission to the College in 1928.
